Our neighborhood boundaries are:

West: Interstate 5—East: NE 50th Avenue
North: NE 119th Street—South: NE 104th Street

Neighborhood association newsletters are copied free of charge by the Clark County Neighborhood Outreach Office and Clark County's Print Shop. The information and views expressed are solely those of the neighborhood association and not of Clark County Government

MEETING AGENDA—Tuesday, March 7 from 6:30-8:00 p.m.

Featured Speaker: Sheriff's Office

We will get an update on Public Safety in our neighborhood and things we can do to reduce risk of crime in our community. Please bring your questions and concerns!

We will vote on our Board members and our Bylaws. You can view the proposed bylaws on our county web page at <https://www.clark.wa.gov/county-manager/sherwood-hills>

We will have time for introductions, networking and getting to know your neighbors.

Make a Difference Day for Sherwood Neighborhood Association—Saturday, March 11 from 10 a.m.—noon. Meet in the Chuck's Produce parking lot to help with trash pick up and beautification of the area. We will supply all materials. Volunteers will have a sign up sheet. Hope to see you there!

What do you want to focus on to improve our area through the Neighborhood Association? In the past we have done Neighborhood Clean Ups, Emergency Preparation meetings, Neighborhood Garage sale, Summer Picnics.

What types of speakers would you like to hear from next?

We have had Clark County Code Enforcement, Animal Control, Council for the Homeless, Public Works, County Auditor on Tax Exemption, County Councilors etc. If you have a topic or speaker you would like to suggest, please let us know.
