Action Items	Minutes
	1:40 PM Meeting commenced
All members	Reviewed the accessibility survey for the Hazel Dell Park survey which was conducted on August 20, 2009. Committee members were pleased that City of Vancouver mayoral candidate, Tim Leavitt, agreed to accompany the Committee during this park survey. Mr. Leavitt had many questions regarding accessibility and displayed true concern regarding accessibility issues. Wayne Yarnall's primary concern was that the accessible parking area be paved and have sufficient parking stalls.
Tim McVicker	The survey was approved. Tim McVicker will forward the report to the Vancouver/Clark Parks Department for action.
All members	The Clark County Fair was discussed. Committee members noted several accessibility improvements at this year's fair but there were still some areas of concern. Jesse Magana suggested that the Committee meet with the fair administration prior to the 2010 fair to make recommendations on how to improve accessibility. Trenton Hanson, an ADA Committee member, is also the ADA Ambassador to the Fair, so his insight and observations will be a great value.
	The Vancouver/ Clark Parks Department has made several accessibility improvements to Salmon Creek Park and requested the ADA Committee re-evaluate the park. Jesse Magana commented that he had talked with Commissioner Mark Bolt about accessibility concerns. It was suggested that the ADA Committee re-visit as many sites as possible after improvements

All members	have been made to ensure accessibility goals have been attained. The ADA Committee will re-evaluate Salmon Creek Park on September 15 th 2009 at 1:30 PM.
All members	Next Meeting – September 22, 2009 1:30 PM - Dragonfly Café.
All Members	Meeting was adjourned at 2:35 PM
