

Local Food Film Festival

Sponsored by:
Clark County Food System Council

Free Event for everyone interested in learning about and supporting local food systems

Friday, July 17:

WSU Vancouver - Lecture Hall 110

14204 NE Salmon Cr. Ave.

Parking: $1.50/hr metered parking until 7 pm, free after 7 pm or $3.00/day in Blue lot (automated machine)

6:00 pm: Ingredients “preview”

6:45 pm: Good Food

Saturday, July 18:

Public Service Center – 6th Floor

1300 Franklin Street

2:00 pm: Growing Awareness

3:45 pm: Good Food

5:00 pm: Ingredients “preview”

🍷 Drop in to one, two or all three showings

The Food System Council helps:

*Build Community
Increase Food Security
Improve Health
Support the Local Economy*

Contact info: Elspeth Durek, Clark County Public Health, 397-8000 ext. 7291

Good Food

by M. Young and M. Dworkin
Pacific NW farmers discuss how they are growing food more sustainably and how consumers and businesses are helping to build and sustain a healthy local food system

Ingredients

by B. Kimmel
Sneak preview of a new film about how restaurants and chefs are working to put good food back on the table and supporting local farmers

Growing Awareness

by J. Ajani
CSA farmers share their views on the present reality of small-scale farming and its impact on farmers, consumers, and the local community