Blueberry Pruning

Love juicy, sweet just-picked blueberries from your own bushes? Not sure how to keep them performing at their best?

Join Master Gardener and landscape designer, Beth Goodnight for a workshop on blueberry pruning.

We'll view a couple of short videos on blueberry pruning basics: when to prune, choosing which canes to cut, and where to cut them. Beth will discuss tools, garden sanitation, and how pruning is part of a sustainable and organic approach to blueberry plant care. Then we'll head out to the on-site blueberry patch to practice our skills.

Make this year your best blueberry season yet!

Dress appropriately for the weather and bring water, garden gloves, and a pair of sharpened loppers or hand bypass pruners if you have them.

This workshop is put on in conjunction with Clark County Environmental Services. It is free but pre-registration is required at <http://bpt.me/2510846>. Attendance is limited to 40.
