County seeks applicants to serve on Clark County Arts Commission

Vancouver, WA – Acting County Manager Mark McCauley is seeking a local resident to represent a local arts education profession on the Clark County Arts Commission.

The Arts Commission is made up of 11 volunteers. Each participating city appoints one member and the county manager appoints three members representing the arts, arts education and business communities.

The arts board advises and collaborates with the Clark County Council and city councils and reports accomplishments to the community. Members advocate for the arts at public hearings and other public forums.

The new member's four-year term begins immediately. The commission meets at 6:30 p.m. the third Tuesday of the month on the sixth floor of the Public Service Center, 1300 Franklin St.

Anyone interested in serving should submit a letter and résumé to Jennifer Clark, Clark County Council Office, P.O. Box 5000, Vancouver, 98666-5000. Applications can be faxed to (360) 397-6058 or sent by email to jennifer.clark@clark.wa.gov.

Application deadline is 5 p.m., Friday, March 11.
