

~PROCLAMATION~

WHEREAS, the United States has a long tradition of government officials encouraging one another and all U.S. residents to reflect on or pray about weighty matters both national and personal, large and small; and

WHEREAS, many challenges face Clark County residents, families and the community as a whole that require deep consideration and careful thought; and

WHEREAS, the social and economic conditions across the county and nation deserve to be considered with great wisdom, compassion and good will; and

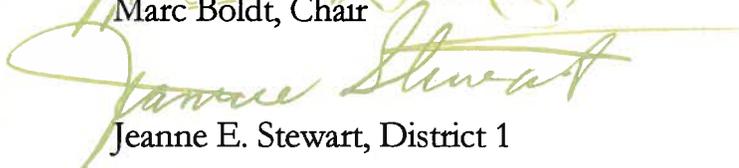

WHEREAS, it is proper for the Board of County Councilors to encourage county residents who believe in prayer to humbly offer, in their own way, thanks to the Almighty for the abundant blessings of the past and seek ongoing blessings for the future.

NOW, THEREFORE, we, the Board of County Councilors, do hereby proclaim February 19-21, 2016 a weekend of reflection and prayer in Clark County, Washington, and urge residents to engage in activities that promote hope and benevolence, demonstrate empathy and strengthen bonds in our community.

Signed this 16th day of February 2016

BOARD OF COUNTY COUNCILORS
CLARK COUNTY, WASHINGTON

Marc Boldt, Chair

Jeanne E. Stewart, District 1

Julie Olson, District 2

David Madore, District 3

Tom Mielke, District 4

