

~ RESOLUTION ~

Whereas; John McKibbin was a resident of Clark County from 1969 to 2016; and

Whereas; John served his community faithfully, generously and energetically, first as a teacher at Columbia River High School, then as a two-term 49th District representative in the Washington legislature and a three-term member of the Board of Clark County Commissioners; and

Whereas; He left elected office in 1990 to work in the real estate sector and dedicated himself to the vision of a healthy, compassionate and resilient community through service to the Greater Vancouver Chamber of Commerce, Leadership Clark County, Habitat for Humanity and most recently, Identity Clark County; and

Whereas; John has been known for his high standards, integrity, humor, joy, friendship and caring for individuals and the community as a whole, distinguishing himself as a family member, man of faith and public servant; and

Whereas; John and family friend Irene Mustain perished March 23, 2016 when the North American AT-6A he was piloting crashed in the Columbia River near Astoria, Ore.; and

Whereas; Flags at county facilities flew at half-staff from March 28 through April 1.

Now therefore, be it resolved by the Board of County Councilors that we hereby extend gratitude for the life of John McKibbin and urge residents of Clark County, Washington to pause to remember John and his contributions to our community and keep his wife, Nancy, and daughters, Jennifer and Megan, and extended family in our thoughts and prayers.
