County manager seeks applicants for Clean Water Commission

Vancouver, WA – County Manager Mark McCauley is seeking applicants for an opening on the Clean Water Commission.

The term runs from January 2017 through December 2019.

The nine-member volunteer commission is an advisory group that makes recommendations to the Board of County Councilors about services, policies and financing needed to meet federal and state requirements for water quality, including stormwater management.

Applicants can live anywhere in Clark County. Residents of the unincorporated area are encouraged to apply. Analytical skills are desirable, as is experience with environmental issues.

The commission meets 6:30-8:30 p.m. on the first Wednesday of every other month, beginning in January. Meetings are in the sixth-floor Training Room in the Public Service Center, 1300 Franklin St.

Anyone interested in serving should submit a letter and résumé to Jennifer Clark, Board of County Councilors Office, P.O. Box 5000, Vancouver, 98666-5000. Alternatively, applications can be faxed to (360) 397-6058 or sent by email to jennifer.clark@clark.wa.gov.

Application deadline is 5 p.m., Monday, Nov. 21, 2016.
