

The following excerpt from staff report #13-024 of the May 21, 2013 C-Tran Board meeting states that the purpose of PBD-015 was to reassure voters that any sales tax revenue that was already approved by the voters, would not be used to fund the CRC project. The report is found on page 237 of the agenda.

STAFF REPORT
#13-024

TO : Chair and Board of Directors
FROM : Jeff Hamm, Executive Director/CEO
DATE : April 9, 2013
SUBJECT : Columbia River Crossing Project Sponsor Policy Statement

OBJECTIVE:

To revise C-TRAN's Columbia River Crossing Project (CRC) sponsor policy statement.

PRESENT SITUATION:

The C-TRAN Board of Directors adopted Board Policy PBD-015 on December 13, 2005. The purpose of the policy was to establish guidance for C-TRAN's participation in planning for the CRC project and to reassure voters that any voter approved sales tax revenue, including the successful September 2005 ballot measure, would not be used to fund the CRC project.
