NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

Doug Lasher, Clark County Treasurer, stated that second-installment 2016 property taxes are due on Monday, October 31, 2016. “If you have not received your 2016 second-installment tax statement or have lost it, you can visit our website at www.clark.wa.gov/treasurer or contact the Treasurer’s Office at (360) 397-2252 for a duplicate statement.”

The Treasurer’s Office is located on the second floor of the Public Service Center at 1300 Franklin Street (one block north of the Clark County Court House).

Taxpayers may pay their property taxes online using a credit/debit card or from their checking/savings account. While credit/debit card payments are assessed a 2.39% convenience fee, there is only a $1 per transaction fee for using your electronic checking/savings account. To make a payment, go to www.clark.wa.gov/treasurer/payment-options, or by phone, call 1-877-778-4606. To register to receive your tax statement electronically and manage your property taxes online go to www.clark.wa.gov/ezPropertyTax. Payment transactions must be completed by midnight, Monday, October 31, to avoid interest charges.

If mailing a tax payment, it should be mailed to the Clark County Treasurer, PO Box 9808, Vancouver, Washington 98666-8808. Tax payments must be postmarked by Monday, October 31, 2016, to avoid interest charges. Taxpayers are encouraged to use the return envelope and payment coupon provided with their statement to mail their payments.
