Hi Rebecca,

I have attached the updated timeline. For a little more detail- we expect final plans from the consultant on Nov 10th. We will put it out to bid shortly thereafter, and anticipate awarding the contract in December. With weather and holidays we anticipate the majority of the construction will occur in January.

Thanks,
Brenda

Hello,

Can you provide me with a new timeline for this project so that I can modify the contract?

Thanks!
Rebecca
