

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the Ridgefield community, surrounding municipalities, Clark County and state of Washington recognize the importance and impact of the 150th Anniversary of the Clark County Fair, and

WHEREAS, the honored past participants and supporters, supervisors, staff and volunteers have created a legacy of excellence, family fun and education for 150 years, and

WHEREAS, the esteemed attendees, families, children, honored seniors and anyone seeking fun and family traditions have been and will always be welcomed, and

WHEREAS for 150 years, the rich agricultural traditions of Clark County have been heralded, presented, explored and shared for the betterment of our community.

Now, therefore, this Clark County Council proclaims the week of August 3, 2018, the:

~ 150th Anniversary of the Clark County Fair ~

We encourage all in our community to visit the Clark County Fair, to share in our heritage, to take in the displays, walk the grounds, and pay tribute to an historical moment. We would like to personally thank all the families, volunteers, current and past staff and any and all who have kept the spirit of this fair alive for many generations!

Signed this 31st day of July 2018
