First half of 2017 property tax statements are mailed, due date May 1

Vancouver, Wash. – Property tax statements for the first half of 2017 are in the mail, Clark County Treasurer Doug Lasher announced Friday.

Property tax statements include property tax levy amounts, special assessments and certain fees. The Treasurer's Office sent 67,000 paper statements, 78,000 postcards to taxpayers whose mortgage companies pay their taxes, and 6,000 e-statements to people who registered to receive tax bills online.

"Property owners who pay taxes directly to the county rather than through a mortgage company should receive their statements within ten days," Lasher said. "If they don't, please visit www.clark.wa.gov/treasurer or call the Treasurer's Office at 360.397.2252."

If a taxpayer moved in the past six months, he or she must notify the Treasurer's Office.

The first installment of 2017 property taxes is due Monday, May 1, 2017. After that, interest and penalties will accrue.

Payments can be mailed to Clark County Treasurer, P.O. Box 9808, Vancouver, WA 98666-8808. Payments can be made in person at the Treasurer's Office on the second floor of the Public Service Center, 1300 Franklin St.

Other payment options are online at www.clark.wa.gov/treasurer or by phone at 1-877-778-4606. Paying from a checking or savings account costs $1 per transaction; credit card payments carry a 2.39 percent convenience fee. Transactions must be completed by 11:59 p.m. Monday, May 1, 2017, to avoid interest charges.

Before mailing delinquent taxes or assessments, check www.clark.wa.gov/treasurer or call the Treasurer's Office at 360.397.2252 to determine the correct payment amount.

Senior or disabled citizens may qualify for a property taxes exemption. Call the Clark County Assessor's Office at 360.397.2391 for more information
